LDCs/SIDS BENEFICIARY DELEGATES SUPPORTED BY THE TRUST FUND AT THE 62nd SESSION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL (HRC62)

(15 June – 7 July 2026)

Cuba	Ms. Ivette Lamigueiro Canedo
Dominican Republic	Ms. Noelia Miosotis Nuñez Arias
Guinea	Ms. Sy Nounkoumba
Guyana	Ms. Kezia Renelsa Campbell-Erskine
Micronesia (Federated States of)	Ms. Deavina D. Ken
Rwanda	Ms. Flavia Umulisa
Samoa	Mr. Sinamoni Sioape Faasau
Senegal	Mr. Elhadji Doudou Diop Mboup

Cuba

Ivette Lamigueiro Cañedo

Official at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, specialist in human rights at the General Division for Multilateral Affairs and International Law

Ivette Lamigueiro Cañedo is a human rights officer at the General Division for Multilateral Affairs and International Law of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Cuba. Her responsibilities include engagement with the Human Rights Council, the UN General Assembly (UNGA) and its Third Committee, as well as Treaty Bodies and Special Procedures, among other areas under the attention of the International Organizations Division.

Since joining the Ministry in 2023, she has worked on Cuba´s 4th reporting cycle to the Universal Periodic Review, its 9th Periodic Report to the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), and its combined twenty-second to twenty-sixth periodic reports on its implementation of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD). She has also served as member of Cuban delegations to the Third Committee of the 78th Session of the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA), the 57th Session of the Human Rights Council, the 2025 Regular Session of the Committee on NGOs, the Regional meeting on National Mechanisms for Implementation, Reporting, and Follow-up (NMIRFs) in Latin America, and the Second Workshop on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

Dominican Republic

Noelia Miosotis Nuñez Arias
Analyst, Human Rights Directorate – Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Dominican Republic

Noelia Nuñez has served as a public official since 2018, with professional experience in the fields of banking law and human rights. She currently serves as an Analyst at the Human Rights Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Dominican Republic, where she follows matters related to international labour law, business and human rights, the rights of persons with disabilities, and specialized international organizations. In the exercise of her functions, she contributed to the development of the National Human Rights Plan 2018–2024 and participated in the preparation and presentation of the Dominican Republic's periodic report under the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD) in Geneva in 2025.

Ms. Nuñez studied Law and has completed specialized diploma programmes on the Inter-American Human Rights System, women's political participation, and the rights of persons with disabilities in Latin America and the Caribbean. She has represented the Ministry of Foreign Affairs before the National Steering Committee and the International Labour Organization on multiple occasions and supported the work of the Human Rights Council during the Dominican Republic's membership, particularly on issues relating to the rights of persons with disabilities and minority rights in Geneva. She has also participated as a panelist in international forums, including Dominicana Innova and the Hernán Santa Cruz Conference held in Beijing in 2024.

Guinea

Sy Nounkoumba

Directrice Nationale Adjointe des Droits de l'Homme au Ministère de la Justice et des droits de l'Homme

Sy Nounkoumba est Directrice Nationale Adjointe des Droits de l'Homme au Ministère de la Justice et des Droits de l'Homme de la République de Guinée et Enseignante-Chercheure à l'Institut Supérieur des Sciences de l'Éducation de Guinée (ISSEG). Forte de plus de quatorze années d'expérience dans l'enseignement supérieur, la recherche et l'administration publique, elle possède une expertise reconnue en gouvernance, promotion de la citoyenneté, formation, plaidoyer et droits humains. Ancienne Directrice Nationale Adjointe de la Citoyenneté, elle a contribué à la mise en œuvre de plusieurs programmes nationaux de paix, de cohésion sociale et de culture citoyenne. Engagée dans la promotion et la protection des droits humains, elle participe activement à l'élaboration et au suivi des politiques publiques ainsi qu'au respect des engagements internationaux de la Guinée en matière de droits de l'homme. Elle s'est notamment impliquée dans la finalisation de l'avant-projet de loi sur la protection des défenseurs des droits de l'homme et dans l'élaboration de la stratégie nationale de rapportage et de suivi des recommandations des mécanismes internationaux des droits humains. Doctorante en Sciences de l'Éducation et titulaire d'un Master dans le même domaine, elle poursuit ses recherches à l'Université Général Lansana Conté de Sonfonia-Conakry.

This is her first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council.

Guyana

Kezia Renelsa Campbell-Erskine

Head, Legal and Treaties Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation

Mrs. Kezia Campbell-Erskine leads the Legal and Treaties Division in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, Guyana. She joined the Ministry in 2018 as a Legal Officer and was distinguished by her diligence and affinity for public international law. As the Ministry's most senior legal advisor, her work includes advising senior Government officials and Guyana's diplomatic representatives, and spans every field of public international law, as well as Guyana's domestic law. Through this exposure, she developed expertise in human rights law and specialised expertise in environmental and energy law and their intersection with human rights obligations. Mrs. Campbell-Erskine plays an integral role in her Government's preparation of responses to communications and questions from treaty bodies and special procedures.

Mrs. Kezia Campbell-Erskine holds a Bachelor of Laws (with Distinction) from the University of Guyana and a Legal Education Certificate from the Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad and Tobago. She was called to the Bar in Guyana in 2018. In 2022, Mrs. Campbell-Erskine completed a Master of Laws in Energy and Environmental Law (with Commendation) from the University of Aberdeen where she studied on a Chevening Scholarship. She is a United Nations Regional Course in International Law Fellow (2018) and an International Law Seminar Fellow (2023), and credits both opportunities as being catalytic for her career.

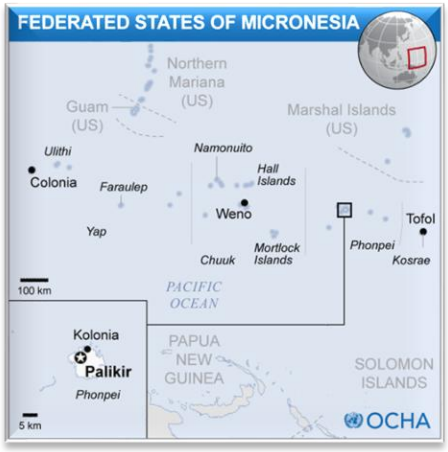

This is her first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council.

Micronesia (Federated States of)

Deavina D. Ken
Foreign Service Officer, Multilateral Affairs Division, Department of Foreign Affairs

Deavina D. Ken serves as a Foreign Service Officer with the Division of Multilateral Affairs in the Federated States of Micronesia Department of Foreign Affairs, a role she assumed in 2024. In this capacity, she has supported the work of the FSM National Human Rights Taskforce. One of the highlights has been supporting the development of Micronesia's 4th Cycle of the Universal Periodic Review (UPR) process, which strengthened FSM's commitment to human rights and multilateral cooperation.

She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Public Administration & Management and International Politics from the University of the South Pacific (USP) in Suva, Fiji. She is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in International Relations and Diplomacy at Schiller International University in Florida, USA, further deepening her expertise in diplomacy and global affairs.

This is her first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council and also her first time in Geneva.

Rwanda

Flavia Umulisa

Second Counsellor, Permanent Mission of Rwanda to the United Nations in New York

Ms. Flavia Umulisa is a Second Counsellor at the Permanent Mission of Rwanda to the United Nations in New York, where she has served since 2021. In her current role, she leads the Mission's work on social, human rights, humanitarian and cultural issues, representing Rwanda in multilateral negotiations and intergovernmental processes across the UN system. She also supports Rwanda's engagement in the Executive Boards of UNICEF, UN Women and UNDP/UNFPA/UNOPS, contributing to policy discussions and negotiations on development, gender equality and humanitarian action.

Ms. Umulisa has held several leadership roles within multilateral processes, including serving as Vice Chair of the 70th Session of the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW70), where she co-facilitated negotiations on the outcome document of the world's largest intergovernmental gathering dedicated to gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls. She previously served as Vice Coordinator of the African Group for the UN Third Committee, where she helped coordinate African Group positions on key resolutions and facilitated dialogue among the 54 African Member States, other UN Member States and UN partners.

Ms. Umulisa holds a Master's degree in International Affairs from the George Washington University and a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from Lafayette College in the United States.

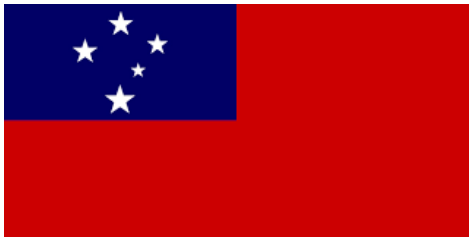

This is her first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council and also her first time in Geneva.

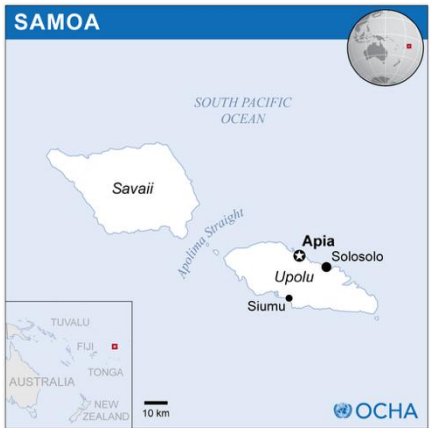

Samoa

Sinamoni Sioape Faasau

Foreign Service Officer, International Relations Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Trade

Mr. Sinamoni Sioape Faasau is a Foreign Service Officer in the International Relations Division (IRD) under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade Samoa. The IRD serves as the secretariat to the National Mechanism for Implementation Reporting and Follow-up (NMIRF) and SDG Task Force.

Mr. Faasau supports the Secretariat in overseeing the human rights conventions such as the CED, CRPD, CRC, CEDAW, CAT, and ICCPR. He has also served as one of the delegates to CED and CRPD interactive dialogues in March 2026. Mr. Faasau is currently assisting the Secretariat with the Fourth UPR Report.

He holds a Bachelor's degree Majoring in Politics and International Relations and Bachelor’s degree in Advanced studies (Politics and International Relations) from the University of Sydney, 2025.

This is his first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council.

Senegal

Elhadji Doudou Diop Mboup

Chef de la Division des Droits humains et du Contentieux (DH-CONT) à la Direction des Affaires juridiques et consulaires du Ministère de l'Intégration africaine, des Affaires étrangères et des Sénégalais de l'Extérieur du Sénégal

Juriste et diplomate de carrière, Monsieur Elhadji Doudou Diop MBOUP est Conseiller des Affaires étrangères et Chef de la Division des Droits humains et du Contentieux (DH-CONT) à la Direction des Affaires juridiques et consulaires du Ministère de l'Intégration africaine, des Affaires étrangères et des Sénégalais de l'Extérieur du Sénégal.

Dans le cadre de ses fonctions, il assure notamment le suivi des dossiers relatifs aux droits humains, à la coopération judiciaire internationale ainsi qu'aux contentieux impliquant l'État du Sénégal ainsi que les missions diplomatiques et les organisations internationales accréditées à Dakar. Il participe également à la coordination de l'élaboration des rapports et observations du Sénégal devant les mécanismes et juridictions internationaux et régionaux en matière de droits de l'homme.

Avant son affectation à ce poste en juillet 2024, Monsieur MBOUP a notamment exercé en qualité de Juriste-conseiller au Ministère des Finances et du Budget et de Conseiller technique chargé des Affaires juridiques au Conseil économique, social et environnemental (CESE) du Sénégal.

Monsieur MBOUP est titulaire du Brevet de l'École nationale d'Administration (ENA) du Sénégal, Section Diplomatie, Cycle A, ainsi que d'un Master et d'une Licence en droit privé de l'Université Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar (UCAD). Ses domaines d'expertise couvrent notamment le droit international, les droits humains, la coopération judiciaire internationale, le contentieux international ainsi que la commande publique.

This is his first time attending a regular session of the Human Rights Council and also his first time in Geneva.