Statistics on Current Members of the Expert Mechanism on the Right to Development (EMRTD)[1] (as of May 2026)

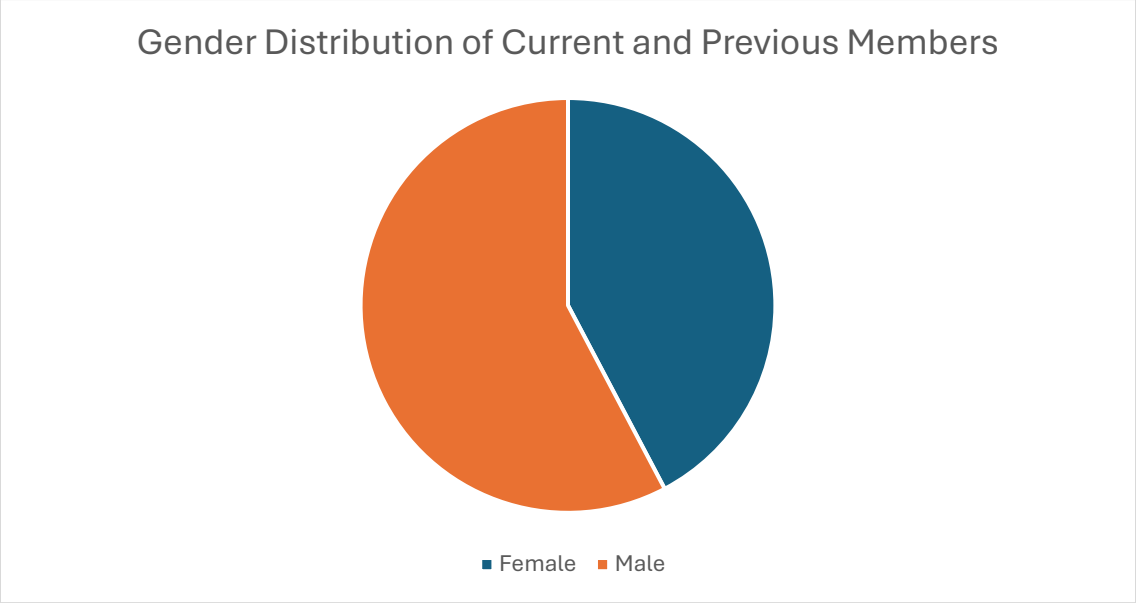

Region	Male	Female	Total
African States	1	0	1
Asia-Pacific States	1	0	1
Eastern European States	0	1	1
Latin American and Caribbean States	0	1	1
Western European and other States	1	0	1
Total	3	2	5
Percentage	60%	40%	100%

[1] Data on regional representation of members is not included, as appointments to the Expert Mechanism on the Right to Development are made with consideration for equitable geographical representation across the five United Nations regional groups, in accordance with Human Rights Council resolution 42/23 of 27 September 2019.

Statistics on Former and Current Members of the Expert Mechanism on the Right to Development (2020-2026)[2]

Regional group	Male	Female	Total
African States	2	0	2
Asia-Pacific States	2	0	2
Eastern European States	0	2	2
Latin American and Caribbean States	1	2	3
Western European and other States	2	1	3
Total	7	5	12
Percentage	58.3%	42.7%	100%

[2] The first five members were appointed and formally assumed their functions in 2020, pursuant to Council resolution 42/23 of 27 September 2019.