尊敬的各位专家、代表：

大家好：

我是国际爱国公约组织代表，代表全球160多个签约组织发言。

从实践来看，各国人民对发展权的认识日益加深，各机构在与国家当局和其他利益攸关方的互动中，频繁援引发展权。比如部分签约机构在社区扶贫中，协助居民以“发展权需保障基本生活资源”为由，与地方政府进行沟通，完善了救助政策。同时，我们已将国家发展权作为法律叙事与社会宣传的工具，推动国家参与《国际爱国公约》和《国家发展权审议》实践，不少组织据此开展普及宣传，使“国家发展权促进人权保障”的理念深入基层。

我们认为：人权保障的基础是国家发展权。脱离国家主权和发展而谈“人权”，如同“无源之水、无根之木”。巴勒斯坦的现状就是有力的例证。联合国将发展权和其他公民、政治、经济、社会、文化和环境权利紧密结合，融入可持续发展目标的框架，是对发展权更为有效和全面的保护。我们呼吁：将发展权保护，特别是国家发展权保护，作为独立且重要的研究领域，这实际上是对人权最根本的保护。

我们以“爱国不能损害他国利益”为原则，推行《国家发展权审议》，旨在从根本上保障人权和可持续发展的基础。《国家发展权审议》，审议目标国在国家发展过程中是否存在违反国际法、损害他国利益的国家行为，以确保国家发展的正当性和可持续性。

最后，国际爱国公约组织呼吁联合国相关机构和各国借鉴我们的建议，携手共进，共同推动发展权的可持续发展，为构建一个更加和平、公正、繁荣的国际新秩序贡献力量。

谢谢大家！

Distinguished experts and representatives:

I am the representative of the International Patriotic Pact organization, speaking on behalf of over 160 signatory organizations worldwide.

From a practical perspective, people across different countries have gained a deeper understanding of the right to development, and various organizations frequently invoke this right in their interactions with national authorities and other stakeholders. For instance, some signatory organizations, in their community poverty alleviation efforts, have assisted residents in communicating with local governments on the grounds that "the right to development requires the guarantee of basic living resources," leading to the improvement of assistance policies. Meanwhile, we have utilized the nation’s rights to development as a tool for legal narratives and social advocacy, promoting national participation in the practices of the International Patriotic Pact and the Review of Nation’s Rights to Development. Many organizations have carried out popularization and publicity efforts based on this, enabling the concept that "the nation’s rights to development promotes human rights protection" to penetrate grassroots levels.

We believe that the foundation of human rights protection lies in the nation’s rights to development. Discussing "human rights" detached from national sovereignty and development is akin to "water without a source and a tree without roots." The current situation in Palestine serves as a compelling example. The United Nations has closely integrated the right to development with other civil, political, economic, social, cultural, and environmental rights within the framework of the Sustainable Development Goals, providing more effective and comprehensive protection for the right to development. We call for the protection of the right to development, particularly the nation's rights to development, to be recognized as an independent and important field of study, which, in essence, constitutes the most fundamental protection of human rights.

Guided by the principle of "love one's own country without harming other nations' interests" , we have implemented the Review of Nation's Rights to Development, aiming to fundamentally safeguard the foundations of human rights and sustainable development. The Review of Nation's Rights to Development examines whether the target country has engaged in any national behaviors that violate international law or harm the interests of other countries during its national development process, ensuring the legitimacy and sustainability of national development.

We hope to advance the International Patriotic Pact and the Review of Nation's Rights to Development at the United Nations level within the framework of national human rights obligations, comprehensively promoting and protecting human rights, including the right to development. We suggest incorporating the International Patriotic Pact and the nation's rights to development into national education systems, establishing a third-party review platform for the nation's rights to development, and allowing civil society organizations to participate as important partners. At the same time, we propose setting up independent institutions, formulating review mechanisms and supporting policies, and providing sufficient financial support and guarantees to ensure the smooth implementation of related work.

Finally, the International Patriotic Pact Organization calls on relevant United Nations agencies and countries to draw on our suggestions, work hand in hand, and jointly promote the sustainable development of the right to development, contributing to the construction of a more peaceful, just, and prosperous new international order.

Thank you all!
